A$AP Ferg has a new mixtape, Still Striving, coming in early August that's set to feature A$AP Rocky, Rick Ross, Snoop Dogg, Busta Rhymes, French Montana, Meek Mill, and a new remix of his Remy Ma collab "East Coast." He also recently dropped five new songs, "Plain Jane" (produced by Kirk Knight), "Aw Yeah" (featuring Lil Yachty), "Furious Ferg," "Nia Long," and "Tango." Listen to all five, along with an interview of Ferg discussing his new mixtape on Zane Lowe's Beats 1 show, below.

Ferg has just a few dates left opening the Future/Migos tour this week, and he continues to add shows set to happen after that. A few are in his hometown of NYC.

Though it's not explicitly clear if Ferg will be there since the collective's live lineup fluctuates, A$AP Mob is playing the sold-out Steez Day on July 7 at Playstation Theater. Later that month, Ferg headlines Peter Rosenberg's sixth Peterpalooza (July 27 at Knockdown Center with Dave East, Pro Era's Nyck @ Knight (who also play Steez Day), Jay IDK (ditto), WestsideGunn, and Conway (tickets)). Ferg also headlines the August 5 installment of Warm Up at MoMA PS1 (tickets). Updated dates are listed below.

In addition to Peterpalooza, Dave East also plays a free Brooklyn show on 7/19 with Nas, Young M.A., and DJ Biz Markie (RSVP).

Speaking of Peter Rosenberg, he just dedicated a full episode of his "Real Late" show to Prodigy, and had Eminem and Kendrick on the show to rap P verses. Listen here. Kirk Knight (who produced Ferg's new "Plain Jane" and plays Peterpalooza as part of Nyck @ Knight) just took part in a big Prodigy tribute at Prospect Park.
