

Knockdown Center Gallery Exhibition Budget Guidelines

Guest Curator Stipend

Knockdown Center provides an exhibition stipend to cover curator and artist honorarium in addition to costs associated with shipping, materials, publications, and programming. Exhibitions are typically 5 – 7 weeks, and allotted 5 days to install.

Curatorial Honorarium: Curators receive a $500 curatorial honorarium per exhibition. In the case of a co-curated exhibition, the curatorial honoraria is divided between curators.

Artist Honoraria: Each artist included in an exhibition receives a $100 honorarium.

Shipping, Material, or Publication Costs: KDC will reimburse up to $500 upon the submission of receipts for:

- Artwork shipping
- Material costs for special installation needs
- Expenses associated with an exhibition publication

Programming: KDC offers $400 to support exhibition-related programs. Programs may include but are not limited to: panel discussions, screenings, readings, performances, or a closing reception.

Knockdown Center Support

Knockdown Center provides the following exhibition-related support:

- Art handler for installation and de-installation up to 22 hours.
- Fine Art Insurance coverage for all dates of the exhibition.
- Title vinyl production and installation.
- Marketing support.
- Opening reception costs.
